

Media Histories, Industries and Identities in East-Asia: Negotiating Local, Regional, Transnational

Date: May 29th 2015

Time: 10:40-12:10

Location: Main Conference Room, 3rd Floor,
Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia(東洋文化研究所)
University of Tokyo (Hongo Campus)

Discussant: Prof. Markus Nornes, University of Michigan

■ Sten-Kristian Saluveer

“Challenging East-Asian media space: Case studies from regional co-production markets in Japan, Hong Kong and South Korea”

■ Kyohhei Kitamura

“Kyo Machiko’s Film Body: Star Actress as a Vamp Type of Postwar Japan”

■ Kazuto Kondo

“‘Time Lag’ in the Film Reception: The Influence of the Historical Change of Distribution System on the Film Experience”

■ Lillian TSAY

“The Imperial Gaze: The Staged Authenticity of Taiwanese Cuisine in Colonial Travel Media”

3rd Annual University of Tokyo-GSII Graduate Student Conference

9:30-10:00 Registration

10:00-10:10 Opening remarks

10:40-12:10 Media Histories, Industries and Identities in East-Asia:
Negotiating Local, Regional, Transnational

12:20-13:50 Monumentality, Materiality, and Media Representation:
The Socially Engaged Architecture and its Contemporary Image

13:50-15:20 Lunch Break

15:20-16:50 Contemporary Social Transformation in East Asian Societies

17:00-18:30 Social Media and International Relations

18:30- Closing Remarks & Dinner